

Position: Postdoctoral researcher Start date: 1st October 2022

Duration: 1 year (renewable for one more year)

Institution: University of Turin, Italy Job description: Conducting research in the context of the ERC-funded project CIVILSPACE (<https://cordis.europa.eu/project/id/101001458>), especially the cross-national analysis of legal frameworks of civil society organizations and their reform over time.

Job requirements: PhD dissertation on a theme broadly relevant to CIVILSPACE; Experience in the design and implementation of data coding protocols as well as the analysis of legal data are desirable. Fluency in English. Fluency in one additional European language is desirable.

Your application: Please manage your application in the University of Turin's portal:

<https://pica.cineca.it/unito/assegni-di-ricerca-unito-2022-iii/>

The application ought to be submitted in English and ought to include (among other formal documentation specified in the official call, see link) a scientific C.V. and relevant scientific publications.

If you have any questions please get in touch with Professor Fabrizio Di Mascio (fabrizio.dimascio@unito.it)