

The University of Mannheim is an academic university with an outstanding reputation in research and teaching, currently employing approximately 2,630 staff and around 12,000 students. Political Science at the University of Mannheim belongs to the top group nationally and internationally.

To strengthen the political science group, we would like to recruit an

Assistant Professor (W1) of Analytical European Politics

and an

Assistant Professor (W1) of Analytical International Politics

starting their position as soon as possible. If it can be expected that the holder of the assistant professorship will complete the final evaluation on a particularly outstanding level, a simplified recruiting procedure for the transfer to a tenured professorship in accordance with section 48 (1) 6 LHG will be sought, subject to budgetary approval.

Tasks	Requirements
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Research and teaching in the field of European or international politics with a close link of analytical theory building and empirical evidence. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Doctorate in political science or a related social science.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Involvement in the Mannheim Centre for European Social Research (MZES), the Graduate School of Economic and Social Sciences (GESS) and the EITM Europe Summer School. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Excellent scientific achievements, proven by publications in internationally outstanding journals.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Collaboration in future joint projects. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Ability to teach courses in the English language.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Active involvement in university self-administration. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Willingness to relocate to Mannheim

The University of Mannheim

The University of Mannheim attaches great importance to a competitive international research and teaching environment. As the University places a high value on equality and equal opportunities for all social groups, the University of Mannheim expressly welcomes applications from qualified female academics and takes parental and care periods into account.

Contact the University of Mannheim

If you have any questions about the two advertised assistant professorships, please contact the chair of the job search committee, Professor Dr. Michael Diehl.

Please send us your application (in a single PDF document) including a curriculum vitae, references, list of publications and teaching experience, third-party funding and current teaching evaluations. Please send your application electronically to sowi.bewerbung@uni-mannheim.de by 5 May 2023. In case you are unable to submit your application via e-mail, please send it, including the supporting documents listed above, to "Dekan der Fakultät für Sozialwissenschaften, Universität Mannheim, A5, 6, 68131 Mannheim".

Legal Disclaimer

The requirements for appointment are in accordance with § 47 LHG of the State of Baden-Württemberg. Applications from severely disabled persons will be given preferential treatment in the case of equal qualification.

Please note that data transmitted via unencrypted e-mail communication may be subject to unauthorized access by third parties and confidentiality cannot be guaranteed.

Please find detailed information on your rights regarding the collection of personal data according to article 13 of the General Data Protection Regulation (DSGVO) on the University of Mannheim website. <https://www.uni-mannheim.de/en/about/employment-opportunities/data-protection-during-the-job-application-process/>.

Submitted application documents can only be returned if you enclose a stamped envelope. Otherwise, the documents will be destroyed in accordance with data protection law after the application process has been completed. Electronic applications will be deleted accordingly.